Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Remembering

Marks: 5

Question: Describe Sankalp's life in the new town, detailing why he was unhappy and how his classmates treated him.

Answer Key: Sankalp was a simple-hearted young boy who moved to a new town with his parents. He was deeply unhappy because he missed his old school, teachers, and childhood friends. He found it difficult to adapt and failed to make new friends in the new environment. To make matters worse, a few hostile classmates began bullying him while he returned home from school. On the day of the story, these bullies threatened to beat him if they caught up with him. This constant intimidation made Sankalp dread going to school every day, causing him immense emotional stress and loneliness.

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_002

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Remembering

Marks: 5

Question: Narrate the events that led to Sankalp getting lost in the dark woods.

Answer Key: To avoid a violent confrontation with his bullies, Sankalp picked up his bag and ran out of the school premises the moment the final bell rang. He ran frantically without looking back for a long time. Suddenly, feeling that some boys were pursuing him, he entered the nearby woods in a jiffy to hide, disobeying his parents' explicit warning to avoid the area. Thinking he was safe and invisible, he sat down to catch his breath and fell asleep from sheer exhaustion. When he woke up, evening had set in and it was getting dark. Realizing he had completely lost his way and could not find his path out, Sankalp began weeping in fear and worry for his parents and himself.

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

Question: Explain how Sankalp met the stray pup in the woods and how their friendship developed.

Answer Key: While crying in the dark woods, Sankalp heard dry leaves rustling and light footsteps behind him. Turning around, he discovered a small, lost, and forlorn pup standing quietly. Recognizing that the pup was as lonely and lost as himself, Sankalp spoke to it with warmth, asking if it would be his friend and help him find his way home. The pup responded immediately by nuzzling against Sankalp's leg affectionately and sniffing the ground. This simple, tender interaction established a deep bond of mutual trust and friendship between the lonely boy and the stray pup.

Question 4

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_004

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Remembering

Marks: 5

Question: Describe how the pup guided Sankalp out of the woods and how they met the search party.

Answer Key: After bonding with Sankalp, the pup began sniffing the ground as if on cue to trace a path through the dark forest. Demonstrating natural tracking instincts, the pup walked ahead and guided Sankalp safely out of the woods. As they emerged, they encountered an anxious search party consisting of Sankalp's parents, townspeople, and the school watchman holding a flashlight. Sankalp ran ahead and hugged his relieved parents tightly, narrating his terrifying ordeal and introducing his savior pup, whom he officially named 'Pepper'.

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

Question: What is the moral of the story 'Sankalp and his Friend'? Explain how the story illustrates this moral.

Answer Key: The moral of the story is 'Love does not need a language.' This moral is beautifully illustrated through the relationship between Sankalp and the stray pup Pepper. Although Pepper could not speak human words, it understood Sankalp's distress and loneliness. Through non-verbal actions such as gentle nuzzling, trail-sniffing, and tail-wagging, Pepper offered affection, comfort, and physical guidance. The story proves that genuine love, empathy, and friendship transcend spoken words and can be communicated purely through caring actions.

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Critically analyze the impact of school bullying on a child's psychological well-being as shown in Chapter 01.

Answer Key: Bullying creates severe emotional trauma, inducing feelings of dread, inadequacy, and intense isolation. In Chapter 01, hostility from classmates caused Sankalp to hate his new school environment, feel alienated, and experience extreme panic. It forced him to flee blindly into physical danger to escape harassment. The story accurately depicts how bullying compromises a child's sense of safety, self-esteem, and rational decision-making.

Question 27

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_027

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Examine the narrative function of the woods in 'Sankalp and his Friend'.

Answer Key: The woods serve a dual narrative function: as a physical obstacle and a symbolic space of transition. Physically, it presents darkness, confusion, and disorientation that tests Sankalp's endurance. Symbolically, entering the dark woods represents Sankalp's deep emotional isolation and fear. Leaving the woods led by Pepper symbolizes passing through emotional darkness into safety, connection, and newfound maturity.

Question 28

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_028

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Evaluate the effectiveness of non-verbal communication in resolving human conflict and loneliness.

Answer Key: Non-verbal communication is exceptionally powerful in conveying genuine empathy when words fail. Pepper's gentle nuzzling, attentive eye contact, and trail-sniffing communicated trust and comfort far more effectively than spoken language to a traumatized boy. Similarly, Sankalp's tight embrace with his parents expressed profound relief beyond words, validating the moral that love transcends language.

Question 29

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_029

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Discuss how the author constructs tension and relief throughout the story.

Answer Key: Tension is constructed incrementally: school harassment → threats of violence → panic-driven flight into forbidden woods → getting lost → darkness setting in → crying in isolation. The tension reaches its peak with mysterious rustling sounds. Relief is introduced gradually: the appearance of a gentle pup → mutual bonding → guided path out → flashlight beam of the search party → warm family embrace.

Answer Key: 1. Objective: Develop empathy, conflict management, and emotional awareness.

2. *Discussion: Analyze Sankalp's feelings of loneliness and how bullying affects students.

3. *Activity: Role-play positive ways to welcome new classmates and resolve conflicts.

4. *Writing Task: Write a paragraph on 'How I can be a loyal friend to someone in need.'

5. *Reflection: Discuss the moral 'Love does not need a language' regarding pet care.

Question 31

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_031

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: How does the watchman's character highlight the concept of community safety?

Answer Key: The watchman represents vigilant community protection. By paying attention to students, noticing Sankalp's flight, and joining the search party, he demonstrates that adult alertness is vital for safeguarding children.

Question 32

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_032

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Comparing

Marks: 5

*Question: Contrast the behavior of the school bullies with the behavior of Pepper.

Answer Key: The bullies exhibited cruelty, hostility, and physical intimidation toward a vulnerable new student. Pepper exhibited warmth, gentle affection, and protective guidance toward the same vulnerable boy, highlighting true friendship.

Question 33

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_033

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Explain how parental empathy aids in healing childhood trauma.

Answer Key: When Sankalp returned, his parents offered immediate physical affection and attentive listening instead of anger or blame. This supportive response restored his sense of security and enabled him to process his fear healthily.

Question 34

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_034

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Analyze why Sankalp ignored the watchman's calls when running away.

Answer Key: Sankalp's mind was consumed by acute flight-or-fight panic. His single-minded urge to escape perceived violence made him deaf to external calls, demonstrating how terror narrows focus.

Question 35

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_035

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Discuss the symbolic meaning of darkness and light in Chapter 01.

Answer Key: Darkness symbolizes confusion, fear, isolation, and lost direction inside the woods. Light (flashlight beam and dawn of friendship) symbolizes guidance, safety, adult protection, and emotional hope.

Question 36

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_036

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: How does Pepper's arrival alter Sankalp's perception of his predicament?

Answer Key: Before Pepper arrived, Sankalp viewed himself as a helpless victim trapped in darkness. After Pepper arrived, he felt needed as a protector and friend, shifting his mindset from despair to active cooperation.

Question 37

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_037

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Evaluate the role of intuition in animal tracking as shown by Pepper.

Answer Key: Pepper relied on instinctive olfactory senses to trace human footsteps and scent trails, demonstrating how animals utilize natural capabilities to navigate environments that confuse humans.

Question 38

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_038

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Applying

Marks: 5

*Question: How can schools create an inclusive environment for newly relocated students?

Answer Key: Schools can pair new students with peer mentors, conduct welcome orientations, enforce strict anti-bullying policies, and encourage cooperative group activities to build belonging.

Question 39

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_039

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Describe the structure of Chapter 01 from problem identification to resolution.

Answer Key: Problem: Relocation loneliness & school bullying. Complication: Flight into forbidden woods & getting lost in dark. Climax: Encounter with stray pup. Resolution: Guided escape, parental reunion, & adopting Pepper.

Question 40

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_040

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Creating

Marks: 5

*Question: Construct an alternative scene where Sankalp introduces Pepper to his teacher the next day.

Answer Key: 'Sankalp walked into school confidently with Pepper waiting at the gate. He introduced Pepper to his teacher, explaining how the pup saved him. Impressed, the teacher praised Sankalp and used his story to teach the class about empathy and kindness.'

Question 41

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_041

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Critique the moral framework of Chapter 01 in addressing systemic school bullying.

Answer Key: While Chapter 01 provides an uplifting personal resolution through pet companionship and family support, it leaves the systemic issue of school bullying unresolved. The bullies face no immediate accountability within the narrative text. From a critical standpoint, while emotional resilience and external support are vital, schools must also enforce structural consequences for bullying to ensure long-term student safety.

Question 42

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_042

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Deconstruct the psychological concept of 'attachment' as depicted through Sankalp and Pepper.

Answer Key: Sankalp's sudden attachment to Pepper reflects secure base seeking under stress. Experiencing rejection from peers, Sankalp projected his need for safety onto Pepper. Pepper's non-threatening, responsive behavior fulfilled the criteria of an attachment figure, providing proximity, comfort, and emotional stabilization during severe distress.

Question 43

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_043

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Synthesizing

Marks: 5

*Question: Synthesize the literary craftsmanship of Shaivalini Sinha in 'Sankalp and his Friend'.

Answer Key: Sinha weaves realistic childhood anxieties with emotional warmth. She employs tight narrative focus, relatable character motives, effective environmental symbolism, and realistic dialogue. By resolving emotional conflict through human-animal bonding, Sinha delivers a poignant, age-appropriate story that resonates deeply with Class 5 readers.

Question 44

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_044

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Creating

Marks: 5

*Question: Formulate a rubrics-based assessment task for evaluating student comprehension of Chapter 01.

Answer Key: - *Textual Recall (20%): Accurately identifying plot events, characters, and settings.

- *Vocabulary Mastery (20%): Correct definition and contextual application of key terms.

- *Character Analysis (30%): Explaining Sankalp's emotional arc and motivations.

Question 45

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_045

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Evaluate how Chapter 01 fosters emotional intelligence (EQ) in young readers.

Answer Key: The story develops EQ by encouraging readers to identify complex emotions (dread, loneliness, relief), understand non-verbal cues, practice empathy toward vulnerable beings, and recognize the value of supportive relationships in managing fear.

Question 46

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_046

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Comparing

Marks: 5

*Question: Compare Sankalp's survival experience in the woods with traditional wilderness survival narratives.

Answer Key: Unlike classic survival tales where protagonists rely on physical tools or bushcraft, Sankalp's survival relies entirely on emotional connection and natural animal instincts, emphasizing relational survival over physical mastery.

Question 47

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_047

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Discuss the socio-emotional challenges faced by primary school children during family relocation.

Answer Key: Relocation disrupts established peer networks, creates academic adjustment stress, and forces children to rebuild social identity. Without immediate support, children may experience acute anxiety and vulnerability to peer marginalization.

Question 48

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_048

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

*Question: Analyze the character function of Pepper as an archetype of the 'Loyal Companion'.

Answer Key: Pepper embodies the timeless literary archetype of the Loyal Companion—an unpretentious, intuitive guide who appears during adversity to assist the protagonist on their emotional and physical journey.

Question 49

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_049

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

*Question: Draft an analytical commentary on the line: 'This has been the best day so far in this town... I have finally made a friend.'

Answer Key: This poignant line encapsulates Sankalp's profound psychological shift. It reframes a harrowing ordeal into a milestone of hope, proving that true companionship outweighs physical hardship and restores faith in the future.

Question 50

Question ID: BK05_CH01_LA_050

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Synthesizing

Marks: 5

*Question: Synthesize the ultimate pedagogical lesson of Chapter 01 for Class 5 English curriculum.

Answer Key: Chapter 01 seamlessly integrates linguistic skill development with character education, demonstrating that empathy, resilience, family support, and genuine companionship are fundamental to overcoming life's challenges.
