Marks: 5

Question: Describe the story of 'The Foolish Pandit' from Pandit Someshwar's prayer to his tragic end.

Answer Key: Pandit Someshwar was a devotee of Goddess Durga who wished for a divine meeting. Guided by his guru, he went to a big jungle to pray without disturbances. He meditated for years with complete dedication. Pleased with his devotion, Goddess Durga appeared and granted him a wish. Someshwar asked for the Sanjeevani booti, a magical herb that could bring the dead back to life.

After receiving the herb, Someshwar daydreamed about helping villagers and becoming the village Sarpanch. However, doubt crept into his mind about whether the herb actually worked. To test it, he applied a few drops to a dead lion lying nearby. The lion instantly revived with immense strength, roared ferociously, and attacked Someshwar. Realizing his foolish mistake too late, Someshwar could not outrun the lion and was eaten by the beast. The story teaches the valuable moral: 'Think before you act.'
