Bloom Level: Remembering

Marks: 5

Question: Describe the early life, family background, and education of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam in Rameswaram.

Answer Key: Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam was born on October 15, 1931, in Rameswaram, a small island town in Tamil Nadu, India. He grew up in a simple middle-class family raised by wise, kind, and deeply spiritual parents. His father owned a wooden ferry boat carrying pilgrims, and young Abdul Kalam helped support his family's income by distributing newspapers after school. Despite financial constraints, Kalam was a brilliant, hardworking student who possessed an insatiable curiosity for science and technology. He completed his early schooling in Rameswaram, went on to study physics at St. Joseph's College in Tiruchirappalli, and later earned a prestigious degree in Aeronautical Engineering from the Madras Institute of Technology (MIT). His humble beginnings and strong family values instilled in him lifelong traits of humility, discipline, and dedication to learning.

Question ID: BK05_CH08_LA_006

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

Question: Discuss how Dr. Kalam's quote 'Dreams transform into thoughts and thoughts result in action' applies to primary school students.

Answer Key: Dr. Kalam's famous quote outlines a three-step formula for student success:

1. Dreaming: Students must allow themselves to imagine high goals (such as becoming a scientist, doctor, teacher, or artist) without fear.
2. Thoughts: Imagination must be transformed into structured thoughts, detailed plans, daily study schedules, and problem-solving strategies.
3. Action: Thoughts must culminate in hard work, practice, reading, and persistent execution.

For Class 5 students, this quote teaches that wishing for success is not enough; one must turn noble dreams into daily study habits and active efforts.
