SECTION A – READING (16 Marks)

Q1. Read the passage below and answer the questions. (4 × 2 = 8 Marks)

Passage 1 (From "The Empty Pot"):

Long ago in China, there was a boy named Jun who loved flowers. Anything he planted burst into bloom. The Emperor of China was very old and had no children. He decided to choose his successor by giving special seeds to all the children of the kingdom. "Whoever can show me their best in a year's time will succeed me to the throne," said the Emperor. Jun planted his seed in a pot and watered it every day, but to his great sorrow, nothing grew. When the year ended, all the other children brought pots with big, beautiful flowers. Jun brought only an empty pot. The Emperor smiled and embraced Jun, revealing that the seeds he gave were cooked and could not grow. Jun was chosen as the next Emperor because of his honesty.

Now, tick the correct answer for the following questions based on the passage:
