SECTION A – READING (16 Marks)

Q1. Read the passage below and answer the questions. (4 × 2 = 8 Marks)

Passage 1 (From "Boat Races Festival Kerala"):

The Kerala boat race, known locally as 'Vallam Kali' (which translates to 'boat game'), is one of the most thrilling and iconic traditions of 'God's own land'. This ancient tradition dates back several centuries with its origins linked to the region's maritime heritage. Each long, sleek boat is called a Chundan Vallam or snake boat and is a marvel of craftsmanship, traditionally built from a single massive tree trunk. During the race, over 100 rowers wear matching white uniforms and chant Vanchipattu (boat songs) in perfect synchronization with their stroke speed. The most famous Vallam Kali is the Nehru Trophy Boat Race, held annually on the backwaters of Alappuzha, drawing thousands of local and international spectators.
