5. Long Answer & HOTS Questions

Question 1

Question ID: CH01-LON-001

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Plot & Summary

Marks: 5

Question: Describe the Emperor's test to find a successor. How did Ping participate in this test?

Model Answer:

*The Emperor's Test: The Emperor of China was getting old and had no heir. To select a worthy successor, he announced a contest giving every child a seed. They were instructed to grow it for six months and present their plants at the court.

*Ping's Participation: Ping loved gardening and cared for his seed deeply by giving it fresh soil, water, and sunlight. However, nothing grew because the seed was boiled. While other children cheated by substituting fake flowers, Ping obeyed his parents and brought his empty pot truthfully. The Emperor rewarded Ping's honesty by crowning him king.

Question 2

Question ID: CH01-LON-002

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Character Comparison

Marks: 5

Question: Why do you think the other children replaced their seeds, while Ping brought an empty pot? Compare their values.

Model Answer:

*The Other Children: Driven by greed and fear of failure, the other children substituted the boiled seeds with fake blooming plants. They prioritized winning over truthfulness.

*Ping's Values: Ping cared about integrity. When his hard work yielded no plant, he was brave enough to present his honest effort. Supported by his parents, Ping chose truth over deceit.

*Conclusion: The story highlights that genuine character shines in honesty, whereas deceitful shortcuts ultimately lead to failure.

Question 3

Question ID: CH01-LON-003

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Create

Topic: Real-Life Application

Marks: 5

Question: 'Honesty is the best policy.' Explain how this moral applies to a student's everyday life.

Model Answer:

*Meaning: Honesty brings trust, respect, and long-term rewards, while lies cause shame and failure.

*Application for Students:

1. Academic Integrity*: Students should complete their own assignments and tests without copying.
2. Admitting Mistakes*: If a mistake occurs, admitting it builds trust with teachers and parents.
3. Long-term Growth*: Like Ping becoming Emperor, truthful students build strong character for life.

Question 4

Question ID: CH01-LON-004

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Extract Analysis

Marks: 5

Question: Analyze the extract: 'At last I have found an honest boy worthy of becoming a king. All the royal seeds were boiled.'

Model Answer:

* (a) Context : Spoken by the Emperor to Ping and the crowd at the Royal Court.

* (b) Significance : The Emperor revealed the hidden truth of the contest—boiled seeds cannot germinate. Thus, any blooming plant was evidence of cheating.

* (c) Impact : This statement vindicated Ping's hard work and exposed the dishonesty of the other children, proving that moral character is the supreme requirement for leadership.

Question 5

Question ID: CH01-LON-005

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Parental Role

Marks: 5

Question: Discuss the role of Ping's parents in helping him make the right choice.

Model Answer:

Ping's parents played a crucial role in his decision. When Ping was heartbroken over his empty pot, his parents did not pressure him to cheat or hide. Instead, they reminded him that he had worked hard and encouraged him to present his true effort to the King. Their moral guidance gave Ping the courage to stand alone among hundreds of children, proving that strong parental values help children stand for truth.

Question 6

Question ID: CH01-LON-006

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Comparison Matrix

Marks: 5

Question: Compare and contrast Ping and the other children who brought flowers.

Model Answer:

| Aspect | Ping | Other Children |

|---|---|---|

| Action | Brought an empty pot with original seed | Replaced boiled seed with a new flower |

| Values | Honest, brave, and truthful | Dishonest, fearful, and greedy |

| Outcome | Crowned Emperor of China | Reprimanded for dishonesty |

This comparison demonstrates that truthfulness is ultimately recognized and rewarded.

Question 7

Question ID: CH01-LON-007

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Leadership Qualities

Marks: 5

Question: What qualities make a good leader according to the story 'Empty Pot'?

Model Answer:

According to the story, a good leader must possess:

1. Honesty: Truthfulness in all circumstances.
2. Courage: Standing up for truth even when standing alone.
3. Diligence: Putting in maximum effort regardless of immediate outcome.
4. Humility: Accepting failure without resorting to lies. The Emperor chose Ping because these qualities ensure justice and wisdom in governance.

Question 8

Question ID: CH01-LON-008

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Emperor's Strategy

Marks: 5

Question: Why did the Emperor use boiled seeds instead of regular seeds for the contest?

Model Answer:

The Emperor used boiled seeds because he was not testing gardening ability; he was testing moral character. Since boiled seeds are biologically incapable of germinating, any child presenting a flower had indisputably cheated. The boiled seed served as an foolproof filter to identify who possessed unyielding honesty.

Question 9

Question ID: CH01-LON-009

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Understand

Topic: Scene Description

Marks: 5

Question: Describe the scene at the Royal Court when the Emperor inspected the pots.

Model Answer:

The Royal Court was filled with hundreds of children holding magnificent, colorful flowers. The Emperor walked past them with a stern, unsmiling face. When he reached Ping, who stood sorrowfully with an empty pot, the Emperor questioned him. After Ping explained his honest efforts timidly, the Emperor's face lit up with a smile, and he declared Ping his successor.

Question 10

Question ID: CH01-LON-010

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Core Message

Marks: 5

Question: What message does the story convey about hard work versus cheating?

Model Answer:

The story conveys that hard work combined with honesty is far superior to cheating for quick success. Cheating may create a temporary illusion of victory (like the fake flowers), but truth eventually exposes deceit. Ping's genuine hard work, though seemingly unsuccessful, earned him the highest reward because it was rooted in truth.

Question 11

Question ID: CH01-LON-011

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Synthesize

Topic: Summary

Marks: 5

Question: Write a short summary of the story 'Empty Pot' in 100 words.

Model Answer:

In ancient China, an aging Emperor held a contest to choose his successor by giving boiled seeds to all children. Ping, a boy who loved gardening, watered his seed for six months, but nothing grew. Encouraged by his parents to be truthful, Ping presented his empty pot at court. While other children cheated with fake flowers, Ping's honesty was praised by the Emperor, who crowned him the new ruler because boiled seeds cannot grow. Moral: Honesty is the best policy.

Question 12

Question ID: CH01-LON-012

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Create

Topic: Alternative Scenario

Marks: 5

Question: How would the story change if Ping had also replaced his seed with a flower?

Model Answer:

If Ping had replaced his seed with a flower, he would have joined the ranks of the dishonest children. The Emperor would have found no honest child in the kingdom, leaving the throne without a worthy heir. Ping would have lost his integrity, proving that one righteous choice can change the destiny of an entire empire.

Question 13

Question ID: CH01-LON-013

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Emotional Journey

Marks: 5

Question: Explain the emotional journey Ping experienced throughout the six months.

Model Answer:

Ping started with excitement and hope, eagerly planting the royal seed. As weeks passed without a sprout, his hope turned to worry and frustration despite his best efforts. On the day of the court, he felt disheartened and ashamed among children with flowers. Finally, upon being praised by the Emperor, his anxiety transformed into joy and relief.

Question 14

Question ID: CH01-LON-014

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Parental Responsibility

Marks: 5

Question: Why did the Emperor reprimand the parents of the dishonest children?

Model Answer:

The Emperor reprimanded the parents because parents are responsible for instilling moral values in their children. By allowing or encouraging their children to bring fake flowers, the parents taught them that lies and cheating are acceptable to achieve power, which destroys the moral foundation of society.

Question 15

Question ID: CH01-LON-015

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Apply

Topic: Science Integration

Marks: 5

Question: What scientific principle explains why Ping's seed did not grow?

Model Answer:

The scientific principle is that extreme heat (boiling) denatures the proteins and kills the cellular embryo inside a plant seed. Once a seed is boiled, its biological life is destroyed, making germination impossible regardless of soil, water, or sunlight.

Question 16

Question ID: CH01-LON-016

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Educational Insight

Marks: 5

Question: What can teachers and parents learn from the Emperor's method of evaluation?

Model Answer:

Teachers and parents learn that evaluation should focus on character, effort, and integrity rather than surface-level results. Rewarding genuine effort over deceptive perfection encourages children to develop truthfulness and resilience.

Question 17

Question ID: CH01-LON-017

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Create

Topic: Creative Writing

Marks: 5

Question: Draft a speech Ping might give to the people of China after becoming Emperor.

Model Answer:

'My dear people of China, today I stand before you not because I grew the grandest flower, but because I carried the truth in an empty pot. As your Emperor, I promise to govern with honesty, hard work, and fairness. Let us build a kingdom where truth is valued above gold, and where every citizen acts with integrity.'

Question 18

Question ID: CH01-LON-018

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Symbolism

Marks: 5

Question: How does the title 'Empty Pot' hold symbolic meaning in the story?

Model Answer:

The 'Empty Pot' symbolizes pure honesty, humility, and moral courage. While empty of plants, it was full of truth and hard work. In contrast, the full pots of the other children were empty of virtue. Thus, the empty pot represents true spiritual wealth.

Question 19

Question ID: CH01-LON-019

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Understand

Topic: Setting Analysis

Marks: 5

Question: Describe the setting of ancient China as depicted in the folktale.

Model Answer:

The folktale is set in ancient China, a land of emperors, royal courts, and deep respect for nature and gardening. The culture valued wisdom, honor, and filial obedience, providing a timeless background for moral storytelling.

Question 20

Question ID: CH01-LON-020

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Remember

Topic: Sequential Steps

Marks: 5

Question: What steps did Ping take to try to save his seed?

Model Answer:

Ping took several dedicated steps:

1. He selected rich, dark soil.
2. He watered it daily with care.
3. He placed it where it received optimal sunlight.
4. When weeks passed with no sprout, he carefully transplanted the seed into a larger pot with fresh soil.

Question 21

Question ID: CH01-LON-021

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Evaluate

Topic: Virtue Analysis

Marks: 5

Question: Why is courage necessary to be honest? Give examples from Ping's story.

Model Answer:

Courage is necessary because being honest often means standing alone and risking embarrassment. Ping needed courage to walk into the court with an empty pot while every other child had a blooming flower, knowing he might be mocked or disqualified.

Question 22

Question ID: CH01-LON-022

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Apply

Topic: Inspirational Insight

Marks: 5

Question: How does this story inspire children facing failure in exams or sports?

Model Answer:

The story inspires children by showing that doing your genuine best with honesty is far more honorable than getting high marks or trophies by unfair means. True self-worth comes from effort and integrity, not unearned victory.

Question 23

Question ID: CH01-LON-023

Type: Long Answer / HOTS

Difficulty: Hard

Bloom Level: Analyze

Topic: Literary Structure

Marks: 5

Question: Identify the main climax of the story and explain why it is effective.

Model Answer:

The climax occurs when the Emperor stops in front of Ping's empty pot and asks why nothing grew. The tension peaks as Ping timidly confesses his failure, only for the Emperor to smile and reveal that the seeds were boiled. It is effective because it delivers a surprising and satisfying moral victory.

Question 24

Question ID: CH01-LON-024

Type: Long Answer / HOTS
