Answer Key & Model Answers

| CH02-SA-001 | Kharanakhara was a lion. He lived in and ruled over a certain part of a jungle. |

| CH02-SA-002 | He was returning hungry because he could not hunt or prey upon a single animal after wandering in the jungle all day. |

| CH02-SA-003 | He thought that some animal must live in such a nice cave, and he decided to hide inside to eat whichever animal returned at sunset. |

| CH02-SA-004 | A jackal lived in the big cave. Upon returning, he noticed lion footprints leading into the cave, but no footprints coming out. |

| CH02-SA-005 | He noticed footprints of a lion going inside his cave, but could not see any footprints coming back out, which alerted him to the danger inside. |

| CH02-SA-006 | He called out to the cave, pretending it always replied before he entered. He threatened to go to another cave if it stayed silent. |

| CH02-SA-007 | The lion feared that if the cave remained silent, the jackal would suspect danger and go to another cave for shelter. |

| CH02-SA-008 | The lion said: "Hello Jackal, you may enter. It is safe inside." |

| CH02-SA-009 | It was frightening because the sound echoed off the cave walls, making the roar sound very loud and booming. |

| CH02-SA-010 | The jackal realized the lion was inside waiting to eat him, so he ran off as fast as he could to save his life. |

| CH02-SA-011 | We learn that presence of mind and quick thinking can save us from dangerous situations. |

| CH02-SA-012 | 'Uninhabited' means having nobody living in it. Sentence: The old house on the hill has been uninhabited for years. |

| CH02-SA-013 | 'Presence of mind' means the ability to stay calm, observe carefully, and think quickly during a sudden danger or emergency. |

| CH02-SA-014 | The lion had great physical strength but lacked cleverness. The jackal was physically small but saved his life using mental sharpness and wit. |

| CH02-SA-015 | The jackal runs off as fast as he can. |

| CH02-SA-016 | He claimed that the cave always answered his greeting before he entered, and that he only entered after getting permission. |

| CH02-SA-017 | The lion believed that caves can talk and answered on behalf of the cave, thereby exposing his own presence inside. |

| CH02-SA-018 | Panchatantra is an ancient collection of Indian animal fables designed to teach moral values, practical wisdom, and governance. |

| CH02-SA-019 | Sunset was the time when wild animals returned to their shelters and when hungry predators looked for prey. |

| CH02-SA-020 | (a) Inhabited / Populated

(b) Pleasant / Comforting / Calming |

| CH02-SA-021 | He was cautious because he observed lion footprints leading in, and he knew entering blindly could cost him his life. |

| CH02-SA-022 | "Hello Cave! Can I come inside?" asked the jackal. |

| CH02-SA-023 | If he had ignored the footprints, he would have entered the cave unwarned and been killed and eaten by the lion. |

| CH02-SA-024 | An echo is a sound repeated because of sound waves bouncing back from walls. It made the lion's deep voice sound louder and scarier. |

| CH02-SA-025 | "Presence of mind can save you from danger." |

Model Answers & Scoring Rubrics

| CH02-LA-001 | Kharanakhara wandered around the jungle all day without finding any prey. As sunset approached, he saw a large, uninhabited cave. He reasoned that whichever animal lived there would return at dusk. He decided to hide inside and ambush the animal for dinner. | Content: 3 Marks
Grammar/Expression: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-002 | 1. The jackal approached his home carefully at dusk.
2. He noticed deep lion footprints pointing into the cave entrance.
3. He scanned the area and saw no footprints pointing outwards.
4. He deduced that the lion entered and remained inside.
5. Rather than rushing in, he devised a verbal test to confirm his suspicion. | Deductive steps: 3 Marks
Language: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-003 | *Lion (Kharanakhara): Powerful, physically imposing, but greedy, impatient, and gullible.

*Jackal: Physically weaker, highly observant, cautious, strategic, and quick-thinking.

*Conclusion: The jackal proved far wiser because intelligence and presence of mind outweigh brute strength in life-threatening situations. | Trait comparison: 3 Marks
Evaluation: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-004 | The lion was driven by extreme hunger and desperation. When the jackal threatened to go to another cave, the lion panicked. His foolish assumption was that caves regularly converse with their owners, leading him to speak on behalf of the cave without realizing it was a trick. | Analysis of flaw: 3 Marks
Clarity: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-005 | If the lion had remained silent, the jackal would still have been suspicious due to the incoming footprints. He would likely have refused to enter, waited until morning, or sought help from other jungle animals, remaining outside in safety. | Speculative logic: 3 Marks
Coherence: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-006 | *Story Context: The jackal saved his life not by fighting the lion, but by staying calm and using cleverness under threat.

*Real-Life Example: If a student gets lost in a crowded market or sees a strange situation, staying calm, observing surroundings, and asking a uniformed security guard or police officer for help displays presence of mind. | Story link: 2 Marks

Real-life example: 3 Marks |

| CH02-LA-007 | The jackal shouted, "Hello Cave!" and pretended that the cave always welcomed him back. By saying, "Why are you silent today? I shall go to another cave," he forced the hidden lion to choose between staying quiet (and losing prey) or speaking up. The lion fell into the trap and spoke. | Strategy breakdown: 3 Marks

Explanation: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-008 | Careful observation helps identify hidden dangers before taking action. In nature, animals rely on tracks and scent to avoid predators. In daily life, observing traffic, signs, and hazards prevents accidents and ensures personal safety. | Natural/Daily relevance: 3 Marks

Structure: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-009 | *Dear Diary,

Today I had the closest escape of my life! As I reached home at sunset, I saw massive lion tracks entering my cave with none coming out. My heart pounded, but I stayed calm. I tricked the foolish lion into answering on behalf of my 'talking cave'! The moment his loud echo boomed out, I ran like the wind. Wit saved me tonight!

- Clever Jackal* | Format & Tone: 2 Marks

Story accuracy: 3 Marks |

| CH02-LA-010 | Animal fables use relatable animal characters to make abstract morals (like wit, honesty, presence of mind) easy for children to grasp. In this story, children see that a tiny jackal can defeat a mighty lion using wisdom. | Fable rationale: 3 Marks

Examples: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-011 | 1. Stop immediately and do not enter.

2. Look carefully for any exit footprints or signs of movement.

3. Test the situation safely from a distance.

4. Inform adult animals or authorities.

5. Move quickly to a safe alternative shelter. | 5 Practical steps: 3 Marks

Language: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-012 | The author builds tension by introducing the hungry lion hiding in darkness, then bringing the unsuspecting jackal to the doorstep, highlighting the silent pause, the clever trick, the terrifying booming echo, and the frantic escape. | Suspense breakdown: 3 Marks

Flow: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-013 | Extreme hunger made Kharanakhara desperate for dinner. His focus was entirely on getting food quickly, which blinded him to common sense and made him believe that a cave could actually talk. | Analysis: 3 Marks

Grammar: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-014 | *Jackal: (Shouting) Hello Cave! Why are you quiet today?

*Lion: (Thinking) Oh no, he'll leave!

*Jackal: If you don't reply, I'll go to another cave!

*Lion: (Roaring echoing voice) Hello Jackal, you may enter! It is safe inside!

*Jackal: Aha! Thank you for speaking, Lion! Goodbye! | Dialogue format: 2 Marks

Accuracy: 3 Marks |

| CH02-LA-015 | 1. *Introduction: Lion wanders hungry; finds empty cave.

2. *Conflict: Lion hides inside; jackal sees footprints.

3. *Climax: Jackal tricks the cave; lion speaks and reveals himself.

4. Resolution: Jackal runs away safely; moral stated. | 4 Plot stages: 3 Marks

Clarity: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-016 | Being alert prevents accidents and danger. If the jackal had walked carelessly into his home while thinking of something else, he would have been ambushed and killed immediately. Alertness saved his life. | Reflection: 3 Marks

Impact: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-017 | Tricking an enemy to protect your life or safety is self-defense. The jackal did not harm the lion; he used verbal trickery solely to uncover the truth and escape danger. | Ethics analysis: 3 Marks

Relevance: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-018 | I thought I was so clever hiding in the dark! When the jackal called out to the cave, I panicked thinking the cave always talked. I roared out 'It is safe inside!' to keep my dinner from leaving. But as soon as I spoke, the jackal laughed and ran away! My foolish mouth ruined my meal. | Perspective: 2 Marks

Creativity: 3 Marks |

| CH02-LA-019 | Uninhabited describes the cave that invited the lion to hide. Bound shows the lion's expectation that prey would return. Echo made the lion's trap backfire with loud noise. Presence of mind summarizes how the jackal survived. | Vocabulary connection: 3 Marks

Grammar: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-020 | No, Kharanakhara was a poor leader and thinker. A good ruler must possess wisdom, patience, and critical thinking. He relied solely on brute power and allowed his foolishness to defeat him. | Judgment & Justification: 3 Marks

Expression: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-021 | 1. Always observe your surroundings before entering unfamiliar places.

2. Look for warning signs or unusual tracks.

| CH02-LA-024 | After realizing the jackal had fled, Kharanakhara slowly stepped out of the cave. He felt embarrassed and furious with himself for being tricked by a tiny jackal. Still hungry and empty-handed, he trudged back into the dark jungle. | Creative paragraph: 3 Marks

Flow: 2 Marks |

| CH02-LA-025 | "The Cave that Talked" is a classic Panchatantra story demonstrating that intelligence and presence of mind are superior to physical strength. When faced with danger, the clever jackal observed footprints and tested the situation with a trick. The foolish lion exposed himself, allowing the jackal to escape safely. The story teaches us to stay alert and think calmly in difficult times. | Complete summary: 3 Marks

8. Extract & Passage Based Questions

Extract 1

> "Kharanakhara was a lion who ruled over a certain part of a jungle. One day, he could not prey upon a single animal after wandering around the jungle in search of food. It was almost the time of sunset, and the lion started returning in spite of being very hungry. On his way, he saw a big cave, and thought to himself, 'It is for sure that some animal must be living in this big cave. Such a nice cave cannot be uninhabited. At sunset, whatever animal lives here is bound to return. I shall hide inside the cave and wait for my dinner to arrive.'"

Answer Key

| CH02-EXT-001 | (B) | Extract 1 explicitly introduces Kharanakhara as a lion who ruled a part of a jungle. |

| CH02-EXT-002 | (B) | It was sunset, he had hunted all day without catching prey, and was very hungry. |

| CH02-EXT-003 | (B) | Uninhabited means having no living inhabitants. |

| CH02-EXT-004 | (B) | He planned to hide inside and wait for his dinner to arrive at sunset. |

| CH02-EXT-005 | (B) | 'Hungry' describes the state of the lion (Adjective). |

| CH02-EXT-006 | (B) | Extract 2 states: "The cave was the home to a jackal". |

- | CH02-EXT-007 | (B) | He saw footprints entering the cave with none leaving. |
- | CH02-EXT-008 | (B) | He wanted to confirm the lion's presence without losing his home unnecessarily. |
- | CH02-EXT-009 | (B) | 'Confirm' means to verify or establish certainty. |
- | CH02-EXT-010 | (B) | 'Had hidden' is in the Past Perfect tense (had + past participle). |
- | CH02-EXT-011 | (B) | The jackal shouted: "Hello Cave! Hello Cave! Can I come inside?" |
- | CH02-EXT-012 | (B) | It was a clever trick to force the hidden predator to talk. |
- | CH02-EXT-013 | (B) | He threatened to move to another cave if no answer was given. |
- | CH02-EXT-014 | (B) | Extract 3 opens with: "The clever jackal thought of a plan..." |
- | CH02-EXT-015 | (B) | Spoken words enclosed in quotation marks are Direct Speech. |
- | CH02-EXT-016 | (B) | The lion believed the cave usually replied and didn't want the jackal to leave. |
- | CH02-EXT-017 | (B) | Direct quote from Extract 4: "Hello Jackal, you may enter. It is safe inside." |
- | CH02-EXT-018 | (B) | The acoustic echo off stone walls amplified the voice frighteningly. |
- | CH02-EXT-019 | (B) | Extract 4 notes: "He ran off, as fast as he could and saved himself." |
- | CH02-EXT-020 | (B) | Final sentence of Extract 4 states this exact moral line. |
- | CH02-EXT-021 | Model Answer: He was exhausted from hunting all day, sunset was arriving, and he realized hiding inside a nice cave was an easier way to catch prey. |
- | CH02-EXT-022 | Model Answer: He thought if a lion was inside he would die upon entering; but if no lion was inside, there was no reason to stay away from his home. |
- | CH02-EXT-023 | Model Answer: He waited in silence to observe if any sound or reply came out, creating tension and giving the lion time to panic. |
- | CH02-EXT-024 | Model Answer: By speaking aloud on behalf of a stone cave, the lion's echoing roar immediately confirmed he was hiding inside waiting to ambush the jackal. |
- | CH02-EXT-025 | Model Answer: The jackal faced life-threatening danger but stayed calm, analyzed physical tracks, devised a clever trick, and escaped safely using quick wit. |
