8. Extract & Passage Based Questions

## Extract 1

> "Garba is a lively and colourful folk dance from the state of Gujarat. It has been in practice for centuries and its roots can be traced back to ancient Gujarat. It is a perfect blend of devotion and culture as it combines elements of dance and prayers. The word Garba is derived from the Sanskrit word 'Garbha' meaning 'womb', and symbolizes life and creation. According to popular belief, in its initial days, the Garba folk dance was performed as an act to pay homage to Goddess Durga, who is worshipped through the Navratri festival."*
