Question 1

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_001

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Remembering

Marks: 5

Question: Examine the fantasy landscape and sensory imagery described in 'My Dream Adventure'.

Answer Key: The poem 'My Dream Adventure' creates a delightful, whimsical candy land through rich sensory imagery:

1. Chocolate Stream: The speaker begins the adventure sailing along a river made of liquid chocolate.
2. Candy-Cane Trees: The trees are tall and colorful, explicitly compared to peppermint candy canes using a simile.
3. Marshmallow Clouds & Jellybean Rains: The weather features soft, fluffy marshmallow clouds dropping sweet, colorful jellybeans as rain.
4. Gold & Red Mountains: Mountains glow in brilliant gold and red colors, with a rocky bed made of crunchy cookie crumbs.
5. Cupcake Streets: The village streets are neatly lined with sweet cupcakes while birds sing melodious songs.

This combination of visual colors, sweet tastes, and soft textures creates a comforting fantasy realm for young readers.

Question 2

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_002

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

Question: Describe the encounter with the dragon and explain how it subverts traditional dragon stories.

Answer Key: In traditional fairy tales, dragons are fierce, fire-breathing monsters that terrorize villages and fight knights. 'My Dream Adventure' subverts this scary trope completely:

- The speaker meets a dragon described as 'green and bright'.
- Instead of roaring or attacking, the dragon 'just smiled, not there to fight'.
- The dragon warmly invites the speaker: 'Come ride with me!'
- Together, they fly high overhead, soaring above gold and red mountains and cupcake streets.

This portrayal transforms a potential monster into a friendly guide and flying companion, teaching children that unfamiliar things are not always scary.

Question 3

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_003

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

Question: Examine the final stanza of the poem and explain the kite metaphor for building real-life courage.

Answer Key: The final stanza transitions from night fantasy to a powerful moral message for real life:

> *'So, when you're scared to try and fly,

Remember the kite up in the sky,

Brave the wind and take the flight,

You'll find your wings and soar in light.'

- Kite Metaphor: A kite cannot fly in still air; it needs opposing wind to gain altitude. The poet uses the kite to symbolize human courage.

- Real-Life Meaning: When children feel scared to try new, difficult challenges ('scared to try and fly'), they must face their fears ('brave the wind'). By taking the leap ('take the flight'), they discover their own inner abilities ('find your wings') and achieve success ('soar in light').

Question 4

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_004

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Remembering

Marks: 5

Question: Describe the structure, rhyme scheme, and poetic devices used in 'My Dream Adventure'.

Answer Key: The poem 'My Dream Adventure' is crafted with engaging poetic elements:

1. Structure: It contains 5 stanzas of 4 lines each (quatrains), totaling 20 lines.

2. Rhyme Scheme: Every stanza follows an AABB rhyme scheme (rhyming couplets):

- Stanza 1: dream/stream (A), canes/rains (B)

- Stanza 2: bright/fight (A), said/overhead (B)

- Stanza 3: red/bed (A), sweet/street (B)

- Stanza 4: rise/eyes (A), light/night (B)

- Stanza 5: fly/sky (A), flight/light (B)

3. Poetic Devices:

- Simile: 'trees were tall, like candy canes'.

- Metaphor: 'cookie crumbs as rocky bed', kite metaphor for courage, 'find your wings'.

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

Question: Explain the vocabulary terms 'marshmallow' and 'crumbs' and show how they are used in the poem.

Answer Key: 1. Marshmallow: Defined in the vocabulary box as 'A soft sweet'. In the poem ('With marshmallow clouds'), it describes soft, fluffy white clouds floating in the candy land sky.

2. Crumbs: Defined as 'Very small dry pieces'. In the poem ('With cookie crumbs as rocky bed'), it describes the ground of the gold and red mountains, replacing hard stones with tiny pieces of delicious cookies.

Question 6

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_006

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

Question: Discuss how the poem connects nighttime dreaming with morning inspiration.

Answer Key: The poem builds a bridge between night dreams and morning waking:

- In Stanza 4, the fantasy adventure ends naturally as 'the sun began to rise'.
- Waking up does not bring disappointment; the child wakes with 'wonder in my eyes'.
- The poet notes that while physical dreams fade in daylight, inspiring dream memories stay in the heart 'from night to night'.
- This positive wonder inspires the child to face the real day with courage, creativity, and joy.

Question 7

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_007

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

Question: Why is 'My Dream Adventure' an effective poem for primary school English literature?

Answer Key: It is highly effective because:

1. Whimsical Fantasy: Children naturally love food imagery (chocolate, candy, cupcakes) and mythical creatures (dragons).
2. Catchy Musicality: Rhyming couplets (AABB) create a cheerful rhythm perfect for reading aloud and memorization.
3. Positive Character Building: It transforms night fears into wonder and delivers a clear, uplifting moral lesson on overcoming self-doubt.

Question 8

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_008

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Comparing

Marks: 5

Question: Compare the physical journey in stanzas 1-3 with the moral journey in stanza 5.

Answer Key: - Physical Journey (Stanzas 1-3): The speaker sails a chocolate stream, meets a green dragon, and flies high overhead seeing mountains and cupcake streets. This is a passive, guided fantasy exploration.

- *Moral Journey (Stanza 5): The speaker is challenged to face real-life fear ('scared to try and fly') like a kite braving the wind. This is an active, self-reliant personal growth journey where the child finds their own wings.

Question 9

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_009

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Easy

Bloom Level: Understanding

Marks: 5

*Question: Summarize Chapter 13 in five detailed bullet points.

Answer Key: - 'My Dream Adventure' by Anonymous is a 20-line whimsical poem about a child's night dream.

- The child sails a chocolate river past candy-cane trees, marshmallow clouds, and jellybean rain.
- A friendly green dragon smiles and invites the child for a flight over gold/red mountains with cookie-crumbs.
- The dream village features sweet singing birds and cupcake-lined streets before the child wakes with wonder at sunrise.
- The final stanza gives a moral lesson: like a kite braving opposing wind, children must face fears, find their wings, and soar.

Question 26

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_026

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

Question: Critically analyze how 'My Dream Adventure' balances whimsical fantasy with realistic character building.

Answer Key: The poem achieves a perfect balance between fantasy and character building:

- Whimsical Fantasy (Stanzas 1-4): Captivates children's imagination through delight—chocolate streams, marshmallow clouds, friendly green dragon, and cupcake streets.
- Realistic Character Building (Stanza 5): Translates the joy of fantasy flight into a real-world moral. Using the kite metaphor ('brave the wind'), it instructs children that true self-confidence comes from confronting fears, trying new tasks, and discovering their inner wings.

Question 27

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_027

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

Question: Examine the structural progression of flight in the poem from passive to active.

Answer Key: Flight progresses in three clear stages:

1. Passive Water Travel (Stanza 1): The child starts by passively floating along a chocolate stream.
2. Guided Flight (Stanza 2): The child takes an aerial flight guided by a friendly green dragon ('off we flew, high overhead').
3. Active Personal Flight (Stanza 5): The child is empowered to take their own flight independently ('find your wings and soar in light'). This progression mirrors a child's growth from dependence to independent confidence.

Question 28

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_028

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Evaluating

Marks: 5

Question: Evaluate the use of food imagery in creating a non-threatening fantasy environment.

Answer Key: Food imagery is strategically used to eliminate fear. By constructing clouds out of marshmallows, rain out of jellybeans, mountain bases out of cookie crumbs, and streets out of cupcakes, the poet ensures that the fantasy world feels safe, sweet, and comforting. Even when a giant dragon appears, the surrounding sweet landscape signals that the dragon is a friendly partner rather than a threat.

Question 29

Question ID: BK05_CH13_LA_029

Type: Long Answer

Difficulty: Medium

Bloom Level: Analyzing

Marks: 5

Question: Discuss how the poem introduces basic principles of physics and nature through poetry.

Answer Key: The final stanza introduces physical principles of aerodynamics and nature: a kite cannot ascend in still air—it requires opposing wind resistance to gain lift. By observing this natural law, the poet bridges nature observation with human psychology, teaching that emotional 'lift' and personal growth require encountering and braving difficulty.
